

Additional Services for High Classification Level Residents

Care or Service	Content
1 Furnishings	Over-bed tables.
2 Bedding materials	Bed rails, incontinence sheets, restrainers, ripple mattresses, sheepskins, tri-pillows, water and air mattresses appropriate to each residents condition.
3 Toiletry goods	Sanitary pads, tissues, toothpaste, denture cleaning preparations, shampoo and conditioner, and talcum powder.
4 Goods to assist residents to move themselves	Crutches, quadruped walkers, walking frames, walking sticks, wheelchairs. However, this excludes motorised wheelchairs and custom made aids.
5 Goods to assist staff to move residents	Mechanical devices for lifting residents, stretchers, trolleys.
6 Goods to assist with toileting and incontinence management	Absorbent aids, commode chairs, disposable bed pan and urinal covers, disposable pads, over toilet chairs, shower chairs and urodomes, catheter and urinary drainage appliances, disposable enemas.
7 Basic medical and pharmaceutical supplies and equipment	Analgesia, anti-nausea agents, bandages, creams, dressings, laxatives and aperients, mouthwashes, ointments, saline, skin emollients, swabs, urinary alkalisng agents. However, this excludes any goods prescribed by a health practitioner for a particular resident and used only by the resident.
8 Nursing services	8.1 24 hour on-call access to care by a qualified nurse, or by appropriately trained staff under the supervision of a qualified nurse.  8.2 24 hour on-site care by a qualified nurse, or by appropriately trained staff under the supervision of a qualified nurse.
9 Nursing procedures	Technical and nursing procedures carried out by a qualified nurse, or other appropriately trained staff, under the direct or indirect supervision of a qualified nurse on a sessional or regular basis.
10 Medications	Medications subject to requirements of State or Territory legislation.

- 11 Provision of therapy services, such as, recreational, speech therapy, podiatry, occupational, physiotherapy
- 11.1 Maintenance therapy delivered by health professionals, or care staff as directed by health professionals, designed to maintain residents' levels of independence in activities of daily living.
- 11.2 More intensive therapy delivered by health professionals, or care staff as directed by health professionals, on a temporary basis designed to allow residents to attain a level of independence at which maintenance therapy will meet their needs.
Excludes: Intensive, long term rehabilitation services required following, for example, serious illness or injury, surgery or trauma.
- 12 Oxygen and oxygen equipment Oxygen and oxygen equipment needed on a short term, episodic or emergency basis.